Celebrate Mothers Day at The 12th Annual Koroneburg Renaissance Festival

Mothers of all ages and eras will be gathering at the Koroneburg Renaissance Festival in Corona for Mothers day. A free souvenir flower will be given to all mothers. Receive a free kid's admission ticket for each adult ticket purchased. This Mother's Day Special includes kids up to 16!

On May 10th, Mother's Day, bring your mom or wife to the Baron's Sunday Brunch served from 11:30 to 2:30 at the Willkommen Inn (a fine sit-down dining experience). Mother's Day brunch features an omelet station, champagne, drinks and a full buffet for just $19.00 and kids 4-10 for $10.00. See special packages online.

The Baron's Village features a period reproduction of a hand powered carousel and adult sized rocking horses. These beautiful steeds stand over 6 feet high and gallop on their rockers with the assistance of their cheerful keepers. The Festival covers more than 9 acres and features 4 stages of entertainment, a daily joust, battle reenactment, cannon demonstrations, 60 shops, 15 life-style encampments and a bounty of food and beverage.

The Festival is open at 11:00 a.m. weekends and Monday Memorial day, from May 9 to June 14. Admission is $18.00 for adults and for children ages 5-12 & Seniors 62+ just $15.00; children 4 and under are always admitted free. Check the web site for additional price savings and group rates.

The Koroneburg Renaissance Festival is held every spring in Corona. Its permanent home is at 14600 Baron Dr (was River Road) at Archibald near Corona ad Norco.
