Hollywood Academy of Music Expands to Better Serve the Community

December 28, 2007 - (North Hollywood, CA) - Hollywood Academy of Music expands by adding a new second location in the NoHo Arts District in North Hollywood. Busy families in the San Fernando Valley will now benefit from extended hours, new programs and additional convenient class times. The school will give away an Apple Ipod and a Fender Guitar as complementary door prizes during the Grand Opening Celebration January 12th, which will be held between 10am and 3pm in North Hollywood. The event will include food catered by Papa John's Pizza.

This school is Hollywood Academy of Music's second location, which was established in 2002 in Hollywood, CA. Due to a dedication to providing convenient, top quality music instruction to its students, the school has grown quickly. Every year the school has added more members to its teaching staff and has upgraded its facilities, and now it offers these services to students in the local areas of North Hollywood, Valley Village, Burbank, Studio City and Sherman Oaks.

Expanded class choices save time for busy families

School Director Kirk Nebel says that many parents choose his school because, in addition to excellent teachers and programs, it allows them to have 2 or more children in separate programs at the same time because the new facility has 8 individual music teaching studios. A large diversity of instruments are taught at the Academy, from the typical piano, guitar, voice, etc. to the less common viola, clarinet and trombone. A group workshop called "School of Rock" - a rock music workshop that teaches the skills necessary for performing in a group setting - is also offered.
